

Lab Technician, Blood Bank
Mizoram State AIDS Control Society

Name of post	Qualification and criteria
Lab Technician Blood Bank	• Must have passed +2 Science Examination under Council of Higher Secondary School Education, /equivalent, and passed Diploma in Medical Laboratory Technology from Government Medical College & Hospitals of the State / any other Private Institutions recognized by Government of All India Council of Technical Education. Terms of reference 1. To do all activities as deemed necessary for proper functioning of Blood Bank including Blood Collection, processing, testing, storage, crossmatching and issue of Blood / Blood Components and disposal of waste. 2. To assist the Blood Bank Officer in carrying out activities related to Blood Safety Program. 3. To participate in various activities for improvement of Voluntary Blood Donation through motivational meetings with Government and Non-Government organizations and organizations of Voluntary Blood Donation Camps. 4. To ensure timely submission of monthly Report from the Blood Bank to State Blood Transfusion Council. 5. To ensure proper display of Blood bank data and IEC material in and around the Blood Bank premises. 6. To prepare & maintain a list of all the equipment including details of date of the supply, functional status, AMC status. Ensure routine maintenance and cleaning of these equipments. 7. Quality management. 8. Regular EQSA testing and record keeping. 9. Camp management. 10. Referral of HIV, Hepatitis B and C. 11. Regular e-raktkosh entry. 12. To perform any other work assigned by authority.