1. Write an essay in about 800 words on any one of the following topics: (25)
- Role of Judiciary in India today.
 - Children's Rights of Protection and Participation.
 - Delayed Justice is Denied Justice.
 - Responsibility of Media in a Democracy.

2. Write the précis of the following passage. (15)

If we look back at India's long history we find that our fore fathers made wonderful progress whenever they looked out on the world with clear and fearless eyes and kept the windows of their minds open to give and receive. And, in later periods, when they grew narrow in outlook and shrank from outside influences, India suffered a setback, politically. What a magnificent inheritance, we have, though we have abused it often enough. India has been and is a vital nation, in spite of all the misery and suffering that she had experienced. That vitality in the realm of constructive and creative effort spread to many parts of the Asian world and elsewhere and brought splendid conquests in its train. Those conquests were not so much of the sword, but of the mind and heart which bring healing and which endure very vitality. If not rightly and creatively directed and may turn inward and destroy and degrade.

Even during the brief span of our lives we have seen these two forces at play in India and the world at large. The forces of constructive and creative effort and the forces of destruction, which will triumph in the end? And on which side we stand? That is a vital question for each one of us, and more especially, for those from whom the leaders of the nation will be drawn, and on whom the burden of tomorrow will fall. We dare not sit on the fence and refuse to face the issue. We dare not allow our minds to be befuddled by passion and hatred when clear thought and effective action are necessary.

Let us be clear about our national objective. We aim at a strong, free and democratic India where every citizen has an equal place and full opportunity of growth and service, where present day inequalities in wealth and status have ceased to be, where our vital impulses are directed to creative and co-operative endeavor. In such an India communalism, separatism, isolation, untouchability, bigotry and exploitation of man by man have no place and while religion is free, it is not allowed to interfere with the political and economic aspects of a nation's life. If that is so, then all this business of Hindu, Muslims, Christian and Sikhs must cease in so far as our political life is concerned and we must build a united but composite nation where both individual and national freedom are its cure.
